ALMA WALTERS SIGNS

And McGregor May Get a New Trial.

SAYS SHE HEARD NO SCREAMS

The Attorneys Do Not Give Out the statement, But There is no Denying That It Was Made—It Will Prove Interesting When the Motion is Argued.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Dec. 17.—The sensational disclosures in the McGregor case have not yet appeared, but Alma Walters has signed the affidavit.

The affidavit which was talked about so much on Saturday was ready for the witness at that time, but when this morning came it was not on file at the court house. The statement that the defense wanted Alma Walters to sign was prepared by Attorney P. M. Smith who called the lawyers together on Saturday afternoon. The woman, who apparently knows so much about the happenings immediately following the death of Lizzie Ewing, would do nothing until her attorneys were called to the conference which was held in the office of Clerk King.

When they were all assembled the matter was discussed for fully an hour before any decision was reached.
Then Alma Walters signed the statement, and Clerk King had her swear to what she had said. She left the room at once, and every effort was made to have the attorneys give out the affidavit for publication, but it was in the possession of Mr. Taylor, who said that it would not be made public until the last moment. It is generally understood, however, that the witness said that when the body was found and McGregor came to her, to the best of her knowledge, he did not act like a guilty man, or knew that Lizzie Ewing was dead before the witness screamed. The three held a conference, Morrison, McGregor and herself, and it was decided that because of the bruises on the side of the face it would be best and safest to bury the corpse at once. The affidavit then recites that McGregor went to Morrison and wanted him to take up the body, as they might have made a mistake, and it would be best to call in a physician. She lived nearest the McGregor house, and on the night in question slept with the window open, but did not hear the slightest sound of a scream or scuffle.

The above is what was in the original statement as it was prepared, but a change was made, as Alma Walters refused to sign it without certain modifications. Just what these changes are could not be learned, but the News Review has it from a source which should know that they are not radical.

JUBILEE YEAR.

How the Presbyterians Will Celebrate Next Month.

The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the First Presbyterian church will be celebrated in January of next year.

The congregation as well as the officers of the church are much interested in the project, and every preparation is being made to have it be the event in the history of the church. Doctor Marshall will be here from Des Moines, Ia., and Doctor Frank Talmage, of Pittsburg, will also be present.

Doctor Dixon, at one time a pastor, will come from Canfield, and Doctor McCowan, another pastor will be here from Girardville, Md. Doctor Milligan, of Freeport, Pa., will also be numbered among the visitors, and during the meeting will give a history of the church. It is also expected that the presbytery will hold an adjourned session, and many, if not all, of the ministers will be here to take part in the installation of Doctor Lee, which takes place at that time. The anniversary exercises will extend from Jan. 25 to Jan. 27, and will be marked by special music, Professor Thompson being in charge. Mrs. Thomas Blythe is the only member of the church now living who signed the original charter.

Among the contemplated improvements are electric lights for the building and a complete renovation, including frescoing.

SEND YOUR GIFTS.

You Will Find It Blessed to Remember The Widows and Orphans.

The comrades of General Lyon Grand Army post make their annual offerings to the widows and orphans each Christmas. Post Commander Todd will be in the Grand Army rooms on Friday and Saturday of the present week, December 21 and 22, to receive contributions. Let your gifts be of goods that are not perishable.
In case you have no goods to contribute, cash will come in good play, as it will be wisely and judiciously spent in the interest of those who need it. There are now on the list of General Lyon post some 21 families to receive care and attention. Let your gifts come freely.

"The Lord loveth a cheerful giver."
"Tis more blessed to give than to receive." Take the above quotations as living, practical truths, and remember the widows and orphans of the old veterans when you are making your Christmas presents.

MANY SMALL CASES.

The Squires Have All They Can Do Today.

The case of the electric light company against Thomas Abrams came up for trial in the court of Squire Rose today, and was dismissed. H. E.
Grosshans, attorney for the defense, could not produce a certificate from the secretary of state when the court made the demand, in accordance with a recent law, and the case was thrown out.
The defense stated that the company had such a document in its office in Wellsville, but Attorney Marshall moved for dismissal, and it was dismissed.

Adolphus Hadely was called to answer in the same court for a board bill claimed by Misses Gamble and Bangor, but the court reserved his decision. The same plaintiffs have cases against Tim Williams, H. Bright, Joseph Jackson and John McBane, all of which will be tried this afternoon.

The case of Fred Oachman was called by Squire Travis this afternoon, and is still on trial.
Benjamin Davidson has brought suit before Squire Travis against Samuel Groves and Fred McFarland, claiming $37.50 for wages. It will be heard Thursday morning.

Fred Wilson has a case of ejectment in the court of Squire Rose, the defendant being his son-in-law, Andrew Rattray. Thursday morning has been set for the hearing.

City Engineer George wants $25 from George Olenhouse and wife for services rendered, and has brought suit in Squire Rose's tribunal.

Married at Brighton.

Miss Alzena Herron, of Third street, this city and Mr. W. DeArnold, of Philadelphia, were united in marriage at the temporary home of the groom, New Brighton, Pa., on Thursday evening last by Doctor Thompson.
The marriage was a very quiet one, none being present except the immediate relatives of the happy couple. Supper was served to about 20 at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. T. J. Herron, Fallston. Mr. and Mrs. DeArnold will leave this week for a trip through the east, returning to Youngstown, where they will make their home, and where Mr. DeArnold will take charge of a branch store of H. J. Hackett & Co.

Death of Hiram Clover.

Hiram Clover, of New Brighton, brother-in-law of Manager Palmer, of the News Review, died at his home in Beaver county this morning at 2 o'clock, aged 74 years. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. Mr. Clover was run down by a horse some time since, and never fully recovered from the shock. Some few days ago he was stricken with paralysis, and the attack resulted fatally. Deceased was one of the original Pike's Peak gold prospectors, and lived a life of adventure in the gold fields.

In the Waste Basket.

As evidence that Pittsburg is doing all in its power to capture trade from the towns within reach, the offer of a publishing house of the city to the News Review stands in the front rank. The house proposes to have distributed with the News Review a supplement, telling of Pittsburg, and incidentally contains an offer in money to recompense the News Review for its trouble. As the News Review believes in East Liverpool people patronizing East Liverpool merchants the offer sought the depths of a convenient waste basket.

The Board Will Meet.

The board of education will meet tonight if all the members can be gotten together. Nothing of great importance is booked for the session although the clock question may come up for consideration. The agent for the eastern firm who has been here looking after the matter is expected to return at any time to arrange for putting up the clock.

Gone to Cleveland.

A well known local character has taken her departure. She went to Cleveland this morning, and her parting with a well known brakeman of the poor crew is said to have been affectionate in the extreme.

HEARD THE RAZOR DROP

And on Looking Around A. P.
Howard and Sons

SAW A SUICIDE ON THE SHORE

A Tragic Happening Across the River Saturday Evening—John Metz, a Sali-ville Blacksmith, Put an End to His Life—He Was Formerly a Resident of This Place.

John Metz, a Salineville blacksmith, put an end to his life on the river bank opposite Lythe's sewer pipe works on Saturday evening, cutting an awful gash in his throat with a razor.

It was almost dusk on Saturday when A. P. Howard and his sons noticed a man standing at the edge of the river near their boats. He acted in a suspicious manner, and thinking that he was a tramp about to steal their property, they went down to the landing. Not feeling that it would be right to accuse the man on what little evidence he had, Mr. Howard simply asked the stranger if he wanted to cross the river.
He gave them no satisfaction, seeming to talk as though his thoughts were far away from the conversation in which he was the central figure. As the man showed no disposition to take what did not belong to him, the party left, walking toward their residence nearby. They had moved less than a hundred feet when they heard a sound resembling the fall of a bundle. This was followed almost at the same moment by another sound as though something struck the stones with a metallic ring. Hastily turning the Howards in the dim light could see the man stretched upon the beach, his frame shaken by a convulsive shudder.

In a moment they were at his side, and were horrified to see that there was a great gash in his throat, from which the blood poured in a torrent. Nearby was the razor with which the deed had been committed, and still bearing marks of blood. Any effort to save the man would have been futile, as he was dead in a moment, the gash in his throat being so deep as to almost sever the head from the body.

The Howard family did not know the name of the strange suicide, but they hastily summoned some of their neighbors, and the man was recognized as John Metz, a blacksmith who is married and lived in Salineville.
In his coat pocket was found a postoffice receipt which completed the identification, and the friends were notified at once. Justice E. A. Hart was also informed and came from New Cumberland to hold the inquest yesterday afternoon. He decided that it was a case of suicide, and the body, which had been moved from the beach and prepared for burial. The wife and children, living about four miles from Salineville, were notified, and they arrived in Wellsville on the noon train today. The remains were taken to Toronto this afternoon where they were interred in the cemetery there.

The cause of the man's mad act can only be traced to an attack of the fever which caused him great suffering several years ago. Since that time he has been despondent at times, although it was never feared that he would do away with himself. He left home Saturday afternoon, and seemed in as good spirits then as at any time.
The bereaved wife is prostrated by the awful happening, and it was feared that she could not attend the funeral.

John Metz was known in this place where he worked at his trade several years ago. His brother, Joseph Metz, lives in Chester and is known to a great many persons here. The suicide has at various times been employed at Toronto and Wellsville, and always bore the reputation of an honest, industrious man, with no desire to harm anyone. He was sober and had a good reputation, being one of those men, who, while quiet and unassuming, are known to be good citizens.

A SPECIAL GRAND JURY.

Prosecutor Speaker Will Order One Next Week.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Dec. 17.—Because of the large number of criminal cases on the docket and the number of prisoners in the county jail, Prosecutor Speaker has decided to call a special grand jury next week. It will meet during the holidays, and will have enough to occupy its attention for several days.
East Liverpool will be represented by a large list of cases.

A Suit For Slander.

All Rochester is reassured under by a slander suit in which A. Silverman is the plaintiff and J. H. Simmons, a justice of the peace, is defendant.

According to the Beaver Falls Tribune Silverman charges the justice with the assertion that he was dishonest and that he was a drunkard. There is an air of mystery about the case in Beaver county which seems to baffle the reporters as the principals refuse to talk about the case, but the defendants have given bail for court.

The End Is Not Yet.

President Berg has called a special meeting of council for tomorrow night, but the probabilities are that even then the difficulties will not be satisfactorily adjusted. Mr. Berg said to a News Review reporter this afternoon that there was no other course to pursue except to pass a may ordinance since the court has ordered it, but that it was likely that a bill of exceptions would be filed afterward. This seems to be the opinion of several members, and some lively times may yet be expected.

She Will See About It.

There was a row in a pottery Saturday, because a young girl had said that she would be the second wife of a man employed at the plant. Although the remark was made in jest it traveled to the ears of the partner of his joys and sorrows, and she went to the pottery to see about it. The girl was not there, but the visitor was determined to have satisfaction, and she proceeded to tell her husband what she thought of him, while the other workers smiled.

To His Ears in Blood.

Marlatt, the murderer, was interviewed in the penitentiary the other day and told the reporter that he wants out, and if the board of pardons will not release him he will wake up to his ears in blood. He claims that he should not be confined in prison, and attributes his conviction to the attorneys. The prison authorities are attempting to discover the man who gave Marlatt the knife used so viciously in his last break for liberty.

Unmarked Graves.

A special from Massillon says that the unmarked graves of Adam and Andrew Poe, the great Indian fighters, have been found without any marks of recognition in a cemetery near that place. It is proposed to erect a suitable monument, and give them the credit they deserve. Some members of the family still live in this vicinity, where many of those remarkable conflicts with the Indians took place.

McBride Is President.

Special to the News Review.

DENVER, Dec. 17.—At the meeting of the Federation of Labor in this city today, John McBride, of Columbus, was elected president over Gompers. The action of the delegates created an immense sensation in the hall as McBride is sick in the Ohio capital.

On the River.

The river is falling today, but there is no prospect of navigation being suspended. Coal was passing all day yesterday, about 20 tons going down.
The packets were not blessed with any superabundance of freight at this point although some were taken on.
A number of tows of empties went up. The Bedford, Ben Hur and Keystone State are due down tonight, and the Lizzie Bay tomorrow night.

Building the Fence.

Commissioner Welsh put a force of men at work this morning, building the fence along the river road near the power house of the street railway.
The fence will be a substantial structure, and will meet the demands of Milkman Andrews, who threatens to sue the city if it is not done at once.
According to the action of council at the last meeting the bill for fencing will be sent to the company.

Hit With a Black Jack.

Two young men became involved in a fight in a crowded car coming from Wellsville on Saturday night, and got off at the watering trough switch to settle the case. The older man attempted to assault his opponent, but the other who is a mere boy, chanced to have a bill, and used it freely. The crowd saw the row, and the car waited until it was over.

A Small Blaze.

The fire department was called to Fifth and Market streets this afternoon at 4 o'clock by a blaze in the old white church. The damage was slight.

Married and Happy.

Doctor Huston, on Saturday, said the few words required to link the fortunes of Mr. Edward T. Miller and Mrs. Bertha Strauss, both of this city.

A FEW PLAIN DRUNKS

What the Mayor has to Consider Today.

SOME WERE VERY DISORDERLY

And Will be Compelled to Suffer the Consequences—The Diamond and Franklin Avenue Each Furnish a Pair.
Disturbed a Meeting.

Mayor Gilbert has a full jail when he glanced over his docket this morning, and prepared for the usual pleas of those who had fallen into the hands of the police.

Dan Cochran having been out for several weeks, decided that he must do something to maintain his reputation, and was acting in a disorderly manner in the Diamond yesterday afternoon when Officer Badgley chanced to walk that way. He took Daniel to the comfortable quarters at city hall, and placed the charge of drunk and disorderly against his name.

Charles Amos and Dick Thornberry were enjoying themselves near Mrs.
Conlon's saloon on Saturday night by an encounter which is against the law.
Officer Jennings saw the performance, and realizing that he could not care for both men called for the patrol. Amos was taken to city hall, and Thornberry walked with the officer. Both men gave their names and Thornberry was arranged yesterday being asked to contribute $6.90 to the city fund.

John Hanlon and William Gillespie were arrested in the Diamond by Officer Badgley late on Saturday night because they were fighting.
Both gave security, and will be heard when the mayor so decides.

The most important arrest of the lot was when Patrolman Meador gathered in Alonzo Riggs at the Salvation Army barracks last night.
Riggs was drunk, and disturbed the meeting, being taken out for his trouble. But he was determined to return, and made his intention known by the use of profanity in every form. This was more than the good people at the barracks could endure, and they sent for the police.

More Families Move.

More families have left Irondale because of the strike, but some new men have been added to the force at the mill. The company say that they are satisfied with the progress made by the new men, and that they have no reason to believe that they cannot make tin. There have been several shipments of tin since the strike began.

Hurt at Akron.

Nelson Dunn, a kilnhand employed at the Akron pottery, was seriously injured while at work last Saturday.
A telegram was sent to his mother in this city on Saturday afternoon and she left at once. The injured man was engaged in one of the kilns when a saggar fell upon him, causing injuries which might prove fatal.

Sigh Into Death.

George Pickall, the aged father of Thomas and John Pickall, is very ill at the home of his son in the West End. Several weeks ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis, and there is little hope for his recovery. He is 85 years of age, and was feeble for some time before he was stricken.

Died With Goup.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Michael died at the family residence near the Catholic school this morning with group, but arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Laid Up.

Willard Mercer, of the freight depot, is off duty today, and is laid up with a severe attack of rheumatism.
His right hand and arm are badly swollen.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—B. C. Irons, of Monaca, called on friends in this city, over Sunday.

—Miss Ethel Stevenson, of Beaver county, was here yesterday calling on friends.

—A. T. Williams, of Cleveland, spent Sunday in the city, the guest of friends.

—George Freeman, of Wheeling, spent Sunday the guest of friends in this city.

—Joseph Smith went to New Cumberland and Toronto on business this morning.

—Doctor Roe has returned from Mansfield, where he was called by the illness of his brother.

—Miss Jessie Oliver, of Market street, left Saturday for St. Mary's, Ontario, where she will spend the holidays at home.

EFFECT OF THE TARIFF.

The following letter recently appeared in the free trade New York Herald, and tells its own story:

"Speaking from the standpoint of the importer and dealer, the immediate effect will be to very largely increase in bulk the importation of these wares, and owing to the stringency occasioned by the various causes which led to the recent panic, decreasing in particular the purchase of expensive wares in this country, the great tendency will be to import cheaper and cheaper goods, of less and less intrinsic value.

"The endeavor among foreign manufacturers today in this business is to cater to the masses with large quantities of constantly deprecating goods. The excessive competition abroad, fostered by a better understanding of the American demand than ever before, will tend to utterly exclude the American potters from any benefit resulting from a revival of business in the cheaper wares, for the American potter makes no other grade.

"General values for this class of merchandise have been for many years past lower and lower, frequently less than for the same articles to their own European merchants, in order to supply these goods to American dealers at such a price that they could be sold in this country after adding the tariff advance.

"The standard of excellence heretofore demanded by the American people has been high, because they have had the money to spend. Under depressed conditions they buy what they can exchange their labor and productions for, based on a low valuation, grain, meats, machinery, etc., exported, and the gold made in profitable exchange in the home market out of one another.

"The depressed conditions which have maintained for several years past in South America, Australia, India and Europe generally seem to be gradually improving. This, together with an increased business from the states, will enable them to control the situation.

"When we take into consideration that there is but one manufactory of thin china in this country, and this with a very limited output, it makes us utterly dependent upon England, France and Germany for porcelain, all of which have manufactories sustained in part by government or patronized to a liberal extent by royalty, encouraging artistic productions.

"Elaborate chemical and manufacturing experiments with clays and colored, through the instrumentality of these patronized factories, place results before the local makes of various wares in these respective countries without costly experiments on their part individually, as is necessary here.

"When the American people wish to supply these wares it will be under a correct tariff, one that will not tempt incompetent men to enter the business, and still a tariff that will enable the use of the best labor at a good price, allowing the women to attend to domestic duties and the children to attend school.

"Without adequate protection the production of china and earthenware would seem to be impossible here, and an immense industry from American mineral earths must remain dormant. Under protection our new decorative earthenware has been added to the nation's products, but capital will be cautious and advance in private enterprise slow with tariff reform.

NOTED NOVELIST DEAD

Robert Lewis Stevenson Expires at Apia, Samoa.

BURIED ON A HIGH MOUNTAIN.

The Celebrated Writer Died Suddenly of Apoplexy—He Wrote "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde"—Took a Great Interest in Samoan Affairs.

AUCKLAND, N. Z., Dec. 17.—Advises from Apia, Samoa, of date of Dec 8, are to the effect that the well-known novelist, Robert Lewis Stevenson had died suddenly of apoplexy. His remains were interred on the summit of Paia mountain 1,300 feet high. At the time of his death, Mr. Stevenson had half completed the writing of a new novel.

Robert Louis Balfour Stevenson was born in Edinburgh, Nov. 13, 1850. He was educated at private schools and at the University of Edinburgh, and was called to the Scottish bar, but traveled and devoted himself to literature. One of his earliest works was an account of his travels in California, but the work which established his reputation as a writer of fiction was "Treasure Island," and published in 1883. Among the most popular of his works is "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," which was dramatized and played at the Lyceum theater in London in 1888 and subsequently in the United States. Among his other works are "Kidnapped," "The New Arabian Nights" and "The Black Arrow."

Some time ago Mr. Stevenson, who was suffering from lung trouble, went to the South Pacific for his health. He became enraptured with the Samoan islands and decided to take up his residence and spend the rest of his days there. He took a close interest in Samoan affairs and has written many letters to the newspapers in favor of the natives against the treaty powers under whose direction the government of the islands is conducted.

CHINESE FOUGHT HARD.

But They Were Compelled to Flee Before the Japs.

HIROSHIMA, Dec. 17.—A dispatch from the front states that reinforcements were sent to the Japanese detachment, which, on Dec. 12, was compelled by a superior Chinese force to retire from Saibashu. On Dec. 14 the strengthened Japanese force made another attack on the Chinese who were advancing from Saibashu. The latter fought with vigor, but were completely routed, fleeing in disorder. The Japanese pursued the enemy as far as Chokinshi, and captured four guns and several prisoners. The Japanese loss was three officers wounded and 70 privates killed or wounded.

The Chinese are still confronting the Japanese division commanded by General Tatsuimi and fighting is expected shortly.

A government investigation into the reported atrocities at Port Arthur show that Chinese soldiers in citizens' clothes attacked the Japs in the city. This and the fact that the Chinese terribly mutilated Jap prisoners caused the Jap troops to lose self-control and they massacred a number of the Chinese.

Bowen's Death Killed Fighting.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 17.—It appears that the death of Andy Bowen, who died from injuries received in his fight with Kid Lavigne in the Auditorium club in this city, has killed prizefighting throughout the civilized world. Coming so close on the heels of the death of Con Riordan, the whole world is shocked, and from all sides comes the cry for the suppression of prizefighting. Lavigne is out on $10,000 bail, and the accessories to the fight are held under $5,000 bail each.

[PRESSED HIM TOO CLOSE.

A Suspected Bank Employee Shoots His Questioners and Himself.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Dec. 17.—A tragedy was enacted in the private office of the Citizen's State bank of Council Bluffs, which may result fatally for three persons. John Huntington, assistant bookkeeper and collection clerk, shot C. A. Cronwell of Minneapolis and M. F. Hayden of Chicago, representatives of the Fidelity and Casualty company of New York, and then emptied his revolver into his own breast, inflicting a wound from which he died two hours later. Cronwell and Hayden, it is thought, will recover.

On the 20th of last July a check of $500 was turned over to him by Ira F. Hendricks, one of the employees of the bank, in the regular routine of business, and from that day to this nothing whatever has been seen or heard of it. The day following Huntington left for a vacation trip of several weeks to New York city. The bank officials kept thinking the check would turn up sooner or later and deferred any action. As time passed on and it became evident that the bank was out $500, they sent a message to the Fidelity and Casualty company, in which Huntington was bonded, notifying it of the fact, and suggesting that inspectors come on at once and make an investigation. Huntington was being severely cross-examined when he did the shooting.

Old Couple Tortured and Robbed.

ERIE, Pa., Dec. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. David Slocum, a wealthy couple, living near Edinboro, have been robbed by a gang of masked burglars. The burglars, six in number, attacked the house and broke down the door with a rail. Four of the gang entered the house and bound the aged couple in their bed and then beat them into submission. The burglars set out to torture the couple into revealing the secret of their money vaults, but just as the oil was being applied to Mr. Slocum's feet one of the burglars found a money chest. This and other hiding places showed up between $5,000 and $10,000 in gold and greenbacks. The burglars escaped and the authorities are in pursuit. Mr. Slocum was badly beaten about the head.

Editor Arrested in Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17.—The steamer Australia has arrived from Honolulu. Some little excitement was caused in Honolulu by the arrest and conviction of Edward Norris, a young Englishman, who edits the Holomua, a newspaper that has been recognized as the queen's organ, on a charge of libeling President Dole. Morris was fined $100 and costs. Then he attacked the judge in his paper, charging partiality for the prosecution and was fined $10 for contempt. He appealed the case, and meanwhile his editorials are more rapid than ever.

150 Persons Poisoned.

BERLIN, Dec. 17.—Great excitement has been caused at Freiburg, Saxony, by what appears on its face to be either criminal negligence or a wholesale attempt at poisoning. One hundred and fifty persons were suddenly stricken with all the symptoms attending arsenic poisoning. An investigation showed that all had partaken of rolls from a certain bake shop, and an analysis revealed that the rolls contained arsenic.

No Settlement Yet.

SYRACUSE, Dec. 17.—The story published recently that the attorneys for Mrs. Siebert Kosterlitz of New York have made a settlement with local attorneys of the claims of Mrs. Kosterlitz, mother of the alleged legitimate child, Dorothy Edgarita Crouse Wilson, daughter of D. Edgar Crouse, the deceased millionaire, is denied. Only preliminary papers have been drawn up.

THEY HIRED SLUGGERS

Disgraceful Fight Between Georgia Political Factions.

ENTIRE POLICE FORCE ON DUTY

As the Tax Collector's Office to Try to Stop Rioting—Each Faction Fought Over Delivering Tax Receipts For Voting Purposes.

SAVANNAH, Dec. 17.—The most unique, most disorderly, and generally accepted as the most disgraceful period of politics in this history of this city has come to a breathing pause. Two factional candidates in the dominant party are in the field for the mayoralty, the election taking place in January. Under the first use of the Australian ballot system here no one can vote who has not paid all taxes, including those of this year, and registered. This provision led to a wild scramble at first, and then pitched battles daily between large forces for choice positions in line to the tax collector's office. He could issue only about 300 receipts a day, and as the registration closed Saturday, it was inevitable that many citizens would be shut out.

The two factions hired two gangs of toughs, each numbering about 100 and including the most desperate whites and negroes in the city. These men were paid from $5 to $10 a day. To each was given a list of six names, the largest number the collector would accept taxes for from one person and the money to pay their taxes with. Each morning for ten days past the armies of political mercenaries have slugged each other in front of, and inside the courthouse, hundreds of citizens gathering from all parts of the city daily to witness the big mills. For two weeks at least no citizen paid taxes for himself, all entrusting their names and money to the hired heelers.

At times nearly the entire police force of the city had to be called out to establish order, and for over a week the presence of about 40 policemen has been constantly required at the tax collector's office. The armies of heelers were fed at the rival headquarters, where many of them remained all night, going out early each morning to resume the battle. At the courthouse beer, whisky, coffee and sandwiches were given them. Two or three times a day a number of the workers skipped with their lists and money, discharging many citizens. It is calculated that the cost of keeping up the two armies, which in the last few days had been increased to about 300 to fight for poll tax receipts, was over $10,000. The next legislature will be appealed to to amend the law so as to prevent any repetition of these scenes.

Indian Reservation to Be Opened.

ARMOUR, S. D., Dec. 17.—Information has been received here from Washington confirming the Yankton reservation would not be opened for settlement until next March or April. The reservation contains over 300,000 acres of land, about 125,000 of which will be thrown open to settlement, the rest being allotted to the Indians. It is thought there will be a grand rush for the land when it is opened, as the bulk of it will make excellent farming land.

Gets a Contract From Russia.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Dec. 17.—The Bethlehem Iron company has been advised by a telegram, from their ordnance engineer, Lieutenant Meigs, at St. Petersburg, Russia, of receiving the whole contract, with about $4,000,000, for supplying armor for Russia's two battle ships, the Sebastopol and Petropavlovsk. The contract calls for something over 12,000 tons of armor plate to fit up the two ships.

A Mysterious Meeting.

WHEELING, Dec. 17.—The meeting of Baltimore and Ohio railroad engineers, which has been in session for a week, has adjourned, but no one knows, outside of those who occupied the hall during the meetings, what was discussed. They have entirely baffled the newspapers and local railroad men, except the engineers, who will not talk.

Four Dead in the Family.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Dec. 17.—Mrs. Winslow Shearman and daughter, Mrs. Clinton Davis, who lived on a farm near this place, were murdered by unknown persons Saturday. Mrs. Shearman's husband had gone to attend the funeral of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Myron C. Shearman, who were killed by a train a day or two since.

To Be Hanged Today.

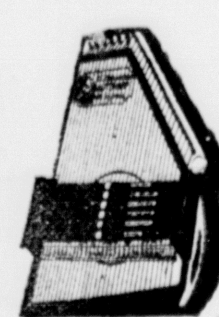

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 17.—The supreme court has confirmed the sentence of death of Gene and John Kennedy, two brothers, charged with killing a telegraph operator at Shell mountain, near Chattanooga, some years ago. The court fixed today as the day for them to be hanged in Marion county.

Want England to Interfere.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The Armenian society of London has sent circulars to clergymen of all sects asking them to attend the meeting called for today to protest against the atrocities in Armenia and calling upon the government to force Turkey to institute reforms.

WILL FIGHT THE BILL.

Some Democrats Opposed to Carlisle's Banking Measure.

SPECIAL ORDER ASKED FOR TODAY

The Committee Wants the Bill to Come to a Vote Friday—Final Vote on the Nicaragua Canal Bill May Be Reached This Week.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—This week, the last before the holiday recess, promises to be an exciting one in the house. The banking and currency committee have arranged to bring forward the Carlisle banking bill and today preferred a request to the committee on rules for a special order which will set aside the remainder of the week, beginning tomorrow, for debate on the Carlisle bill with provision for a final vote on Friday next. The banking committee desires to prolong the session so as to begin at 11 a. m. and continue until 10.30 at night, with a recess from 5 until 8 p. m. The terms for the special order were submitted to the committee on rules today. There is considerable opposition among the Democrats of the house to the short limit it is proposed to set upon the debate.

Any of them feel that a measure involving such gigantic interests, contemplating as it does a revolution in the entire banking system of the country, should not be crowded through in haste. This feeling is shared by some of the most prominent Democratic leaders of the house, and it seems a large possibility that the banking and currency committee will be overruled, and the special order will give this week to debate with provision for a final vote after the holiday recess. Today the house took up and disposed of the army appropriation bill. The adjournment for the holiday recess will probably occur on Saturday. The talk of continuing the session without the customary recess seems to be based on very slight foundation.

The Nicaragua canal bill holds its place as the unfinished business in the senate calendar, and the general understanding appears to be that it will continue to occupy the attention of the senate with few interruptions, and those by consent, until a vote is taken upon it. The bill only comes up on each day after the disposal of the morning business, and it will surrender this place temporarily on Thursday to permit the ceremonies in commemoration of Webster and Stark—the unveiling of their statues which have been placed in the capitol. There is also a probability that the committee on appropriations may ask consideration for the urgent deficiency bill toward the last of the week. It is understood that Senator Cockerill, chairman of this committee, will lay stress upon the importance of getting this bill through before the holidays, and that he will ask the committee to pass upon it the first of the week. There is little probability, however, that any of the other appropriation bills will receive the attention of the senate during the week.

The disposition among senators is favorable to an adjournment on Thursday until after the Christmas holidays, but it is probable that the house will not consent to this arrangement and that the adjournment will be delayed until Saturday. The programme, therefore, with reference to the holiday adjournment, so far as one has been arranged, is to adjourn on Saturday, the 23d inst., until Thursday, the 28th of January.

Some senators predict that the final vote on the Nicaragua bill will be reached this week, but the friends of the bill scarcely hope for this result. They realize that the precedents of the senate are all against action so speedy on a measure of such importance and presenting so many points for debate and set speeches, and they are also prepared to encounter opposition which has not yet taken definite shape. Senator Caffery's objection to an agreement for a vote on the bill on Wednesday next is understood to have been made upon constitutional grounds, and it is quite probable that he, with several other senators, including Teller, Vest, George and Vilas, will desire to be heard in opposition to the measure before it shall be disposed of. Senator Cullom today opened the speaking for the week with a speech on this question.

Germany May Do Worse.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—In view of the discipline of congress to take any action, such as was recommended by the president, looking to the repeal of the duty of one-tenth of 1 per cent on sugar produced under the bounty system, the future action of the German government is being awaited with some apprehension here. The speech of the German chancellor in the reichstag, in which he made a strong point of the discrimination imposed by the United States towards German sugar, is believed to indicate exclusion or severe restriction upon American products.

The Plate May Be Rejected.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—A severe test of a heavy 17-inch Harveyized steel armor plate, furnished by the Carnegie company of Homestead, at Indian Head. While the plate showed remarkable resistance it is barely possible that under a strict interpretation of the test specifications the plate, which is worth $20,000, may be rejected, and the test of another plate ordered before the group of 13 plates which is represented, and which is worth nearly $300,000, is accepted.

Cleveland Leaves on a Trip.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—President Cleveland, accompanied by Dr. O'Reilly, Captain R. D. Evans and Mr. Charles Jefferson, has left for a hunting trip on the coast of South Carolina. The trip has been in contemplation since early fall and is taken at this time in the hope that the outing will benefit the president and eradicate the remnant of his rheumatism, which still lingers with him. The party will return in about a week.

Anxiety For a Steamer.

New York, Dec. 17.—Some anxiety has been caused by the non-arrival of the Mallory steamer Samarcos. She was expected to reach here Saturday at the latest. The steamer has not been reported since leaving Galveston.

A BRAVE ENGINEER.

He Is Fatally Burned Saving Men in a Mine.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 17.—The heroism of Thomas Lloyd, the engineer of the Stevens colliery at West Pittston, has saved the lives of 46 miners. The enginehouse caught fire and the flames communicated to the fanhouse, the destruction of which meant death to the 46 miners who were at work in the mine 500 feet below.

Lloyd ran to the telephone and told the foreman at the bottom of the shaft to give the alarm. Notwithstanding the foreman's haste it was more than 20 minutes before all the men could be gathered together at the bottom of the shaft preparatory to being hauled to the surface. In the meantime the enginehouse was completely enveloped in fire. Three trips were necessary before all the men were brought to the surface. Lloyd stuck to his post, however, and was so badly burned that he may die.

Cameron's Daughter to Entertain Them.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 17.—Governor-elect Hastings and family have accepted the invitation of Mrs. Margaret J. Haldean, daughter of the late General Simon Cameron, to be her guests during the early part of her inauguration. They will arrive from Bellefonte on the Sunday preceding the inauguration and be the guests of Mrs. Haldean until Monday noon, when they will go to the executive mansion to dine with Governor and Mrs. Patterson. The governor-elect and his family will spend Monday night at the mansion, and on inauguration day they will entertain the retiring governor and his family.

A Negro's Desperate Deed.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 17.—The conductor of a train from Savannah reports that a white man was killed on his train near Hartselle. Three white North Carolina boisterous and drinking fellows boarded the train and entered a second-class coach filled with colored turpentine hands. A colored man told them to stop cursing, when one white man drew a pistol. A most powerful negro seized the pistol, turned the muzzle toward the white man and shot him through the head. The negro then jumped off the train, going at 40 miles an hour, and escaped.

Captain Creed Reinstated.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—The police commissioners have reinstated Captain Creedon. Two resolutions were offered by Commissioner Murray. One provided for the release from suspension of Captain Creedon, and the other called for a conference between the president of the police board and Chairman Lexow of the senate committee, concerning Creedon's case and other matters. Commissioner Sheehan cast the only vote against the first resolution, the second being carried unanimously.

Sensational Case Comes Up.

BOSTON, Dec. 17.—The sensational case in which is involved the estate of Millionaire Andrew J. Davis of Montauk came up in Suffolk county probate court today. Mr. Davis died about four years ago in Montana, leaving an estate valued at over $5,000,000, more than $1,000,000 of which is in this commonwealth. It is probable that an effort will be made to induce the court to defer hearing the case until the matter is decided in Montana.

Trainwrecking Narrowly Averted.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Dec. 17.—An attempt has been made to wreck the New York and Chicago limited on the Pennsylvania railroad. The train runs 50 miles an hour through this section. Spikes were pulled from the switch and the lights blown out. The work of the wreckers was discovered just five minutes before the train arrived.

Minors Not Guilty.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Dec. 17.—The case of Commonwealth vs. Patrick Vail, Thomas Blake, James Galbraith, Henry Walker, James Swanberry, Samuel Patterson, James Patterson, charged with conspiracy, riot, and the burning of the Coalalee tippie, ended in a verdict of not guilty.

Anti-Socialist Bill Comes Up.

BERLIN, Dec. 17.—The reichstag commission which arranges the order of business, fixed the first reading of the anti-socialist bill for today. The bill was presented and defended by Chancellor Prince Hohenzollern and his right-hand man, Baron Koeller, Prussian minister of the interior.

The bereaved parents have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Complaints of friends that many children who have not yet attained the age when they can legally purchase tobacco are seen using it on the street every day. In Canton, the other day, a dealer was prosecuted for breaking the law in this direction, and a well known dealer said today that there might be some shaking up among a certain class of tobacco dealers in this place if the matter was pushed.

A congregational meeting will be held at the First Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening, the object being to decide upon the improvement of the building. SWINDLER DELANEY LOCATED.

He Has Been In Detroit—Mrs. Gerst Believed to Have Been There.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 17.—Word has been received here of definite traces of the presence in Detroit of William H. Delaney, the Pittsburgh swindler. It is learned that he has recently been playing the races at the poolrooms in Windsor, and the other day, as reported on the authority of a Detroit city official, was in Detroit city hall. He was introduced to the said official under an assumed name, but promptly said: "Known to the world as William H. Delaney."

It is conjectured that Mrs. Mahida Gerst, who deposited money in Toledo and Cleveland, has also been in Detroit recently. She is reported to have left there for Cleveland with Attorney James Burke of this city. It is said that Burke has held conferences there lately with representatives of the creditors of the Pittsburgh Land and Lumber company, against which suits were instituted by S. G. M. Gates of Bay City and others. It is believed that Delaney's creditors fear to arrest him because he has money secreted, some of which they hope to secure by negotiating with him.

Pool Depositors Turned Down.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 17.—Judge Hamilton, in common pleas court Saturday, granted the motion of S. G. M. Gates to vacate the order under which John Bradley of Pittsburgh became a defendant in Gates' suit against the Pennsylvania Land and Lumber company. Bradley, who represented the Pittsburgh grain pool, a few days ago filed a motion to be made party defendant in the suit of Gates against the lumber company, claiming that the grain pool had also been swindled by the lumber company and was therefore entitled to a share in any money which might be recovered. Bradley's attorneys excepted to the ruling.

Tried to Kill the Girl.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Charles C. Riley and Blanche Graves, both young who had been warmly attached to each other for some time, were recently separated by the girl's mother. Sunday night the girl went to church with an other young man, and as she came out, met Riley face to face. He tore a pair from a treebox and struck her on the back of the head with it with all his force, knocking her senseless and then fled up the street with a crowd of men at his heels. He finally surrendered to a policeman. She was not seriously injured.

An Annoying Day For Irwin.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 17.—George M. Irwin had an annoying day Saturday. He was arrested on six new charges, and a hearing on the rule in the contempt case which was not altogether satisfactory to him or his attorneys. One annoying part of that hearing was the affidavit of Miss K. T. Evans, Irwin's former cashier and head bookkeeper, which H. L. Goehring, attorney for the chamber of commerce, displayed at the proper time. This affidavit is one of deep interest, and it leads to the belief that the reason Irwin will not produce the rest of his books is because he has no more to produce.
